MINUTES OF NSARTA MEETING
FEBRUARY 18, 2015

President Judy Lynn called the meeting to order at 10:03 a.m. and Sarah Villarreal led us in the opening prayer followed by the pledge to the U.S. and Texas flags. Barbara Yates announced that we had 1 new member, 4 guests and 46 members in attendance. Judy Lynn gave the membership an update on her health. Deanna Van Pelt and Paul Cwiklik presented special music along with background information on the selection, America the Beautiful. Michelle Bibb introduced Dean Taylor, Education Director for the Better Business Bureau. Minutes stand approved as written. The unit will be receiving a 150 dollar rebate from TRTA from dues paid to them. Carolyn Pfeiffer gave her report for review and also attempted to return checks to members. Discussion concerning expenses coming for the convention in April. Paul Cwiklik explained the reason for extending officer terms for one more year to align with Region 20 so all officers elected at the same time. There are no nominations. There is not a bus to Austin for Rally Day at this time. TRTA says that we have 321 members and this impacts the number of delegates we can send. Gayle Green announced we have 5 quilts now for auction and we have raised $887 so far for the scholarship fund. Charlotte Travis will visit us next month from Region 20. Sue Winebrenner asked we report to Judy Lynn how we use member benefits so that she can report it to TRTA and to check out the Y for exercise programs. Michelle Bibb thanked the hosts group and announced that for the May meeting it was suggested that we have a salad potluck. A yellow poster board will be put up for sign up and will need 20 members to help. The meeting will be short as to no installation of officers and the meeting will start at 10:00 a.m. Harold Black reminded us to pay dues in March and there is payroll deduction if you want it. Keep up correspondence to the representatives as to our concerns. The state yearbook will be digital this year and remember to visit our web site to see all our current information. Nancy Dooley announced the school for books this year will be Wilshire Elementary. We have 23,285 volunteer hours this year.

Drawing Meeting adjourned at 11:53 a.m.
