

CARROLLTON-FARMERS RETIRED SCHOOL PERSONNEL ASSOCIATION

Minutes February 18, 2015

Meeting was called to order at 11:30 a.m. by Lee Nitcholas, president.

Reverend Bert Alexander of Webb Chapel Church of Christ asked for volunteers to help with their new learning English program. Spanish speaking students will be invited to breakfast to practice English conversation. Volunteers are needed to have breakfast with these students.

Bill Nitcholas gave the invocation.

Linda Bambina expressed welcome to members and guests.

A catered lunch was served.

Door prizes were given.

Beth Sargent introduced Ty Poynter, manager of Calloway's Nursery in Flower Mound. Ty brought many beautiful samples of spring flowers and gave an overview of spring gardening. He was very generous to give most of the plants to members as prizes.

Treasury report and minutes of the last meeting are posted on the web site. Pat Enlow gave an update of legislative items being discussed in Austin that affect retired school personnel.

Committee reports were given. Our association will send four delegates to the State Convention in Austin. Mary Bass was selected as the fourth delegate.

The next field trip will be Thursday, March 18. The group will travel to AT&T Stadium to have a tour of the art exhibit. Cost of the ticket is $24.16.

Meeting was adjourned at 1:35 p.m.
